1. Interpretation

ATTESTED 18/8/26
S. R. MISHRA
NOTARY, BHADRAK

"Act" or "LLP Act" means the Limited Liability Partnership Act, 2008, as amended from time to time.

Words importing the singular include the plural and vice versa; words importing any gender include all genders.

References to Clauses, Schedules and Annexures are references to the corresponding provisions of this Agreement.

"Financial Year" means the period from 1 April to 31 March, subject to the special rule applicable to an LLP incorporated after 30 September.

The headings are for convenience only and shall not affect interpretation.

"Including" shall be construed without limitation.

Any requirement for consent under this Agreement means prior written consent unless expressly stated otherwise.

2. Name

The Partners agree to carry on business in the name and style of "SWASTIK HINDU CERTIFICATION LLP". Any change of name shall be made only with the consent of all Partners and in accordance with applicable law and MCA requirements.

3. Commencement and Duration

This Agreement shall take effect from 18 August 2026, provided that the LLP shall be governed by the LLP Act from the date of its incorporation. The LLP shall have perpetual succession and shall continue until wound up or dissolved in accordance with applicable law and this Agreement.

4. Registered Office and Place of Business

4.1 The registered office of the LLP shall be at Sai Sankalpa, Naguan, Barikpur Bazar, Bhandaripokhari, Bhadrak, Odisha – 756112, India, or such other address as may be approved in accordance with this Agreement and applicable law.

4.2 The LLP may establish branches, laboratories, offices or places of business in Odisha or elsewhere in India or outside India, subject to applicable approvals and the consent requirements of this Agreement.

4.3 Any statutory change in the registered office shall be notified/filed with the Registrar in the prescribed form and manner.

5. Objects and Business of the LLP

5.1 Main Objects

The main objects for which the Limited Liability Partnership is established are:

a. Testing, Inspection and Examination
To carry on the business of technical testing, inspection, examination, measurement, assessment, evaluation, verification and validation of materials, raw materials, products, components, machinery, equipment, instruments, structures, systems, processes, samples and substances of every kind, whether manufactured, processed, imported, exported, supplied or otherwise dealt with.

l. Purchase, acquire, lease, rent, sell, transfer or otherwise deal with movable and immovable property required for the legitimate business of the LLP, subject to applicable law and the approval requirements contained in this Agreement.

m. Advertise, market and promote the services of the LLP through lawful means and establish business relationships with clients, suppliers, institutions and other organizations.

n. Establish branches, representative offices, project offices, laboratories, collection centers, testing facilities and other places of business in India or abroad, subject to applicable statutory and regulatory requirements.

o. Undertake such other lawful activities as are incidental, ancillary, supplementary or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

6. Capital Contribution

6.1 The initial agreed contribution of the Partners shall be INR 1,00,000 (Rupees One Lakh only), as follows:

Partner	Contribution	Percentage	Profit/Loss Share
Mr. Surya Narayan Moharana	INR 60,000	60%	60%
Mrs. Itishree Sahu	INR 40,000	40%	40%

6.2 The form and value of contribution may be increased or otherwise varied only with the written consent of all Partners and after completion of the required statutory filings.

6.3 The capital contribution shall be recorded in the books of the LLP in the respective Partner capital/current accounts as determined by the LLP's accountant.

7. Additional Funds and Partner Loans

7.1 If additional funds are required, the Partners may contribute additional capital in such proportions as they mutually agree in writing.

7.2 A Partner may instead advance a loan to the LLP. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, interest on such loan shall be 12% per annum simple interest, subject to applicable tax law and any lower statutory limit.

7.3 A Partner loan shall not automatically alter the Partner's capital contribution or profit-sharing percentage.

8. Profit and Loss Sharing

8.1 The net profits and losses of the LLP shall be allocated 60% to the First Partner and 40% to the Second Partner.

8.2 "Net Profit" and "Net Loss" shall be determined from the LLP's books after accounting for legitimate business expenses, depreciation, interest, remuneration and other allowable items in accordance with applicable accounting and tax law.

8.3 Distribution of profits shall be made only after provision for taxes, statutory dues, working capital and other liabilities of the LLP.

9. Partner Remuneration, Interest and Benefits

a. Both Partners shall be working partners and may receive remuneration, salary, bonus, commission or other remuneration as may be approved by the Partners in writing from time to time.

b. Any remuneration shall be authorised by this Agreement and/or a written resolution and shall be subject to the maximum amount deductible under the applicable provisions of the Income-tax Act, 1961.

c. Interest on capital or partner loans, if paid, shall be at a rate not exceeding 12% per annum unless a lower rate is required by applicable law.

d. The LLP may reimburse reasonable business expenses incurred by Partners, including travel, conveyance, lodging, communication, software/IT, professional development, business representation and other legitimate business expenses, against appropriate supporting records.

e. Any insurance, medical, vehicle, accommodation, welfare or other benefit for a Partner shall be provided only to the extent approved by the Partners and permitted as a business expenditure under applicable law.

f. Any tax deduction at source or other statutory withholding applicable to payments to Partners shall be complied with by the LLP.

10. Bank Accounts and Financial Authority

a. The LLP shall maintain one or more bank accounts in its name SWASTIK HINDU CERTIFICATION LLP with a scheduled bank or other permitted financial institution.

b. The mode of operation of bank accounts shall be decided by written resolution of the Partners and may authorise one or both Designated Partners to operate the accounts within approved limits.

c. No Partner shall borrow, create a charge, guarantee, give security or otherwise incur a material financial obligation in the name of the LLP without the approval required under Clause 13.

11. Representation and Authority

a. Each Partner is an agent of the LLP for the purposes of its business but is not an agent of the other Partner merely by reason of being a Partner.

b. The Designated Partners, or persons specifically authorised by them under a written authority approved in accordance with this Agreement, may execute documents on behalf of the LLP within the scope of their authority.

c. No Partner shall represent that he or she has authority beyond the authority actually granted under this Agreement, a resolution or applicable law.

12. Books, Accounts, Audit and Records

a. Proper books of account, records, vouchers, statutory registers and other records shall be maintained at the registered office or such other permitted location.
b. Every Partner shall have reasonable access to inspect and take copies of the LLP's books and records, subject to confidentiality and data-protection requirements.
c. The LLP shall prepare its Statement of Account and Solvency, Statement of Income and Expenditure/Profit and Loss, and other financial statements and obtain audit where required by applicable law.
d. The financial year shall ordinarily be 1 April to 31 March, subject to the LLP Act and applicable rules.

13. Reserved Matters and Voting

a. Each Partner shall have one vote. Except where the LLP Act requires otherwise, the matters listed below require the prior written consent of all Partners:
b. Admission, retirement, expulsion or cessation of a Partner or Designated Partner;
c. Change in capital contribution or profit-sharing ratio;
d. Amendment of this Agreement;
e. Change of name, registered office or principal business objects;
f. Opening or closing a bank account or changing its authorised signatories where the change is material;
g. Purchase, sale, lease or disposal of material fixed assets or capital expenditure outside the approved budget;
h. Borrowing, lending, creation of security, mortgage, charge or guarantee by the LLP;
i. Entry into any material contract outside the ordinary course of business;
j. Commencement or settlement of material litigation or arbitration;
k. Merger, conversion, reconstruction, winding-up or dissolution of the LLP;
l. Related-party transactions involving a Partner or his/her relative or connected entity, other than ordinary-course transactions on arm's-length terms;
m. Appointment or removal of a statutory auditor or other professional where unanimous approval is required by this Agreement;
n. Any other matter expressly stated in this Agreement to require unanimous consent.
o. Routine day-to-day operational matters may be handled by the Designated Partners within approved budgets and delegated authority.

14. Duties and Obligations of Partners

Act honestly, faithfully and in good faith in relation to the LLP and the other Partner; devote such time and attention as reasonably required for the LLP's business;
maintain proper records and provide true and complete information concerning LLP affairs;
comply with the LLP Act, applicable rules, tax laws and regulatory requirements;
not derive an undisclosed personal benefit from LLP property, business connections, confidential information or opportunities;

promptly disclose any actual or potential conflict of interest;

protect the LLP's confidential information and intellectual property; and indemnify the LLP for loss directly caused by the Partner's fraud, wilful misconduct or material breach of this Agreement, subject to applicable law.

15. Restrictions and Prohibited Acts

No Partner shall use LLP funds, assets, name, goodwill or credit for personal purposes without prior written approval.

No Partner shall bind the LLP outside the scope of his/her authority.

During the period of partnership, no Partner shall knowingly carry on a competing business using LLP confidential information, intellectual property, employees, clients or business opportunities without prior written consent of the other Partner.

A Partner shall account to the LLP for any unauthorised profit obtained from an LLP transaction or from misuse of LLP property, name, goodwill or confidential information.

16. Employees and Professionals

Employees, consultants, auditors, legal advisers, technical experts and other professionals may be appointed by the Designated Partners within approved budgets and in accordance with the authority matrix approved by the Partners. Material senior appointments may require unanimous consent.

17. Designated Partners

17.1 Both Partners shall be Designated Partners, subject to their valid appointment, consent and statutory filings.

17.2 The Designated Partners shall be responsible for statutory compliance and filings as required by the LLP Act and rules.

17.3 Nothing in this Agreement limits any statutory responsibility or liability imposed on a Designated Partner by law.

18. Meetings and Written Resolutions

18.1 A meeting may be called by either Partner by giving at least 14 days' written notice, specifying the date, time, place and agenda. A shorter notice may be used for urgent matters with the consent of both Partners.

18.2 Meetings may be held physically or by electronic means capable of recording participation and decisions.

18.3 Decisions shall be recorded in minutes or written resolutions and retained with the LLP's records.

18.4 Either Partner may request inclusion of a matter on the agenda.

19. Confidentiality and Intellectual Property

19.1 Each Partner shall keep confidential all non-public technical, financial, commercial, client, employee, pricing, laboratory, certification, software, process and business information of the LLP.

19.2 Confidential information may be disclosed only to the extent required for the LLP's business, professional advice, financing, statutory compliance or by law.

19.3 Intellectual property created specifically for the LLP in the course of LLP business shall, subject to applicable law and any third-party rights, belong to the LLP unless otherwise agreed in writing.

20. Indemnification

20.1 Subject to applicable law, the LLP shall indemnify a Partner for payments and liabilities properly incurred in the ordinary and proper conduct of the LLP's business or for preservation of LLP property, provided the Partner acted within authority and in good faith.

20.2 No indemnity shall apply to fraud, wilful misconduct, gross negligence or acts outside authority.

20.3 A Partner shall indemnify the LLP and the other Partner against losses directly resulting from the Partner's fraud, wilful misconduct or unauthorised acts, subject to applicable law.

21. Cessation, Retirement and Resignation

21.1 A Partner may retire by giving at least one month's written notice to the other Partner, subject to settlement of statutory and contractual obligations.

21.2 The cessation of a Partner shall not by itself dissolve the LLP.

21.3 The outgoing Partner shall remain responsible for obligations incurred while he/she was a Partner to the extent provided by applicable law.

21.4 The outgoing Partner shall be entitled to settlement of his/her economic interest in accordance with Clause 23.

22. Admission of New Partner

No person shall be admitted as a Partner without the prior written consent of all existing Partners. The terms of admission, contribution, profit-sharing, voting rights, responsibilities and any special conditions shall be recorded in a written supplementary agreement and statutory filings shall be completed.

23. Valuation and Settlement of Outgoing Partner's Interest

23.1 On retirement, death, insolvency or other cessation, the outgoing Partner's economic interest shall be determined on the basis of the LLP's net assets and liabilities as at the relevant date, together with any undistributed profit or loss, partner loan, capital balance and other amounts lawfully due.

23.2 Unless otherwise mutually agreed, the valuation shall be undertaken by an independent Chartered Accountant appointed jointly by the Partners or, in the case of death/insolvency, by the surviving Partner and the legal representative/official representative as applicable.

23.3 The amount finally determined shall be paid within such period as may be agreed, taking into account the LLP's cash flow and applicable law. The parties may agree in writing to instalments.

23.4 The valuation mechanism shall not transfer ownership of any specific LLP asset to an outgoing Partner unless expressly agreed and legally permissible.

24. Death of a Partner

24.1 Death of a Partner shall not dissolve the LLP.

24.2 The legal heir or nominee shall not automatically become a Partner. Admission of a legal heir as a Partner shall require the written consent of the surviving Partner and completion of statutory requirements.

24.3 If the legal heir does not become a Partner, the deceased Partner's economic interest shall be settled under Clause 23.

24.4 The legal heir shall not be liable for obligations of the LLP merely by reason of inheritance unless the heir becomes a Partner or liability otherwise arises under law.

25. Insolvency

If a Partner becomes insolvent or otherwise ceases to be eligible to act as a Partner under applicable law, the LLP shall continue subject to law. The economic interest of the affected Partner shall be dealt with in accordance with the LLP Act, applicable insolvency law and Clause 23 to the extent legally permissible.

26. Expulsion

No Partner shall be expelled except in accordance with the LLP Act, this Agreement and principles of natural justice. Any proposed expulsion shall be based on a material breach, fraud, wilful misconduct, persistent non-performance or other lawful ground, and the affected Partner shall be given reasonable written notice and an opportunity to respond.

27. Transfer and Assignment

A Partner shall not transfer or assign management rights, voting rights or any other rights under this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other Partner, except to the extent a statutory right to transfer economic interest cannot lawfully be restricted. Any permitted transfer shall be subject to the LLP Act and applicable filings.

28. Dissolution and Winding Up

The LLP may be wound up or dissolved only in accordance with the LLP Act, applicable rules and a written decision of the Partners where required. On winding up, LLP assets shall be realised and liabilities discharged in the statutory order, with any surplus distributed according to the Partners' entitlements under applicable law and this Agreement.

29. Dispute Resolution

a. The Parties shall first attempt to resolve any dispute amicably through good-faith discussions within 30 days of written notice of the dispute.

b. If the dispute is not resolved amicably, it shall be referred to arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, as amended.

c. The arbitration shall be conducted by a sole arbitrator mutually appointed by the Parties. If the Parties cannot agree on the appointment, the appointment shall be made in accordance with applicable law.

d. The seat and venue of arbitration shall be Bhadrak, Odisha, unless the Parties agree otherwise in writing. The proceedings shall be in English.

e. The arbitral award shall be final and binding on the Parties, subject to applicable law.

30. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. Subject to Clause 29 and applicable law, courts having competent jurisdiction at Bhadrak, Odisha shall have jurisdiction over proceedings arising from this Agreement.

31. Notices

Any notice under this Agreement shall be in writing and may be delivered by hand, registered/speed post, recognised courier or email to the address/email address last notified by the relevant Party. A notice shall be deemed received in accordance with the applicable delivery method and law.

32. Amendment

This Agreement may be amended only by a written instrument signed by all Partners and, where required, the LLP. Any amendment shall be filed with the Registrar in the prescribed form and within the prescribed period.

33. Entire Agreement

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement among the Parties concerning the LLP's internal governance and supersedes prior understandings concerning the same subject matter, except for documents expressly preserved in writing.

34. Severability

If any provision is held invalid or unenforceable, it shall be severed or modified to the minimum extent necessary, and the remaining provisions shall continue in force to the extent permitted by law.

35. Waiver

No waiver shall be effective unless made in writing by the Party granting the waiver. A waiver of one breach shall not constitute a waiver of any other breach.

36. Compliance and Statutory Filings

The Partners and Designated Partners shall ensure that the LLP Agreement, changes in the Agreement, changes in Partners/Designated Partners, registered office and other statutory matters are filed with the Registrar in the prescribed forms and within the applicable statutory periods.

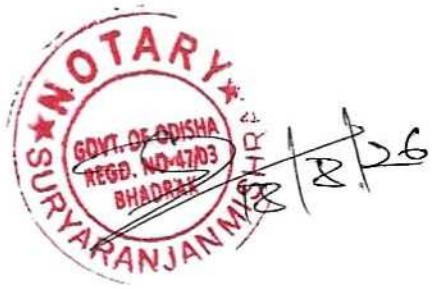

37. Counterparts and Electronic Execution

This Agreement may be executed in counterparts. Signatures made by legally valid electronic means may be used where permitted by applicable law. Each executed counterpart shall be treated as an original.
